

Higher Power Aviation to train Southwest Airlines' Women in Aviation Scholarship Recipients

Grand Prairie, Texas, March, 11 2005 – Higher Power Aviation, Inc. announces its selection as training provider for the winners of the 2005 Women in Aviation Southwest Airlines' Boeing 737 Type Rating Scholarship. Chicago Express pilot, Himani Patel, and Skywest pilot, Nicole Wolfe, will hold their B-737 type rating certificates from Higher Power Aviation by the end of April. Higher Power Aviation is pleased to team with Southwest Airlines and provide excellent training for these deserving scholarship recipients.

Based in the Dallas-Fort Worth International Airport (DFW) area, Higher Power Aviation (HPA) is the leading FAA part 142 approved training center providing Boeing 737 type ratings to individual pilots for employment at Southwest Airlines and other operators. HPA further provides cockpit and cabin crew training on Boeing 727, DC-9 and MD-80 series aircraft, and all models of the Boeing 737, from the Classic to the Boeing 737 New Generation Aircraft, including the C-40A aircraft for the U.S. Navy.

HPA offers innovative training and crewing solutions to individual pilots, VIP executive flight operations, domestic and foreign airlines, governmental agencies, military entities, freight operators and other aviation concerns. HPA trains thousands of pilots on jet transports, and customers include Southwest Airlines, American Airlines, Boeing, CAE, Conoco Phillips, L-3 Communications, and numerous airline and VIP operations. More pilots choose Higher Power Aviation for their FAA Boeing 737 type rating training than any other training center.
